STANDING ORDER 2011-06

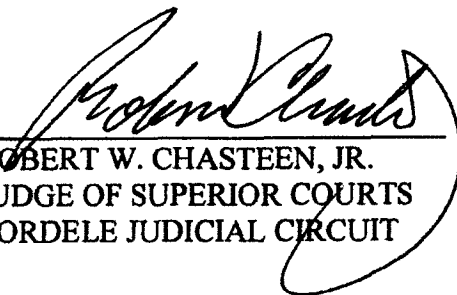

DOMESTIC RELATIONS ACTION STANDING ORDER

Pursuant to O.C.G.A. §19-1-1(b) and O.C.G.A. § 9-11-65 (3), the Court hereby orders that the attached "Domestic Relations Action Standing Order" shall apply, upon filing, to all domestic relations actions as defined in O.C.G.A. §19-1-1(a). When a domestic relations action is filed requiring service by the sheriff or by publication, the Clerk will attach copies of the filed standing order to the original and service copies of the action and give or mail a copy of the filed standing order to the attorney or person filing the action. When domestic relations actions are filed with an acknowledgment of service, the Clerk will attach a copy of the filed standing order to the original complaint and give or mail two copies of the filed standing order to the attorney or person filing the action, with instructions that he or she is responsible for serving the defendant with a copy of the order.

SO ORDERED, this 3rd day of January, 2011.

CORDELE JUDICIAL CIRCUIT

STATE OF GEORGIA

DOMESTIC RELATIONS ACTION

1.

Pursuant to O.C.G.A. §19-1-1(b), this Standing Order binds the parties in the above styled action, their agents, servants, employees, and all other persons acting in concert with such parties.

2.

Each party is hereby enjoined and restrained from unilaterally causing or permitting the minor child(ren) of the parties, if any, to be removed from the jurisdiction of this Court without permission of the Court, except in an emergency affecting the health, safety, or welfare of the child(ren) which has been created by the other party to the action.

3.

Each party is hereby enjoined and restrained from doing, or attempting to do, or threatening to do, any act which injures, maltreats, vilifies, molests, or harasses, or which may, upon judicial determination, constitute threats, harassment, or stalking the adverse party or the child(ren) of the parties, if any, or any act which constitutes a violation of other civil or criminal laws of this state.

4.

Each party is hereby enjoined and restrained from selling, encumbering, trading, contracting to sell, or otherwise disposing of or removing from the jurisdiction of this Court, without the permission of the Court, any of the property belonging to the parties except in the ordinary course of business or except in an emergency which has been created by the other party to the action.

5.

Parties to domestic relations actions involving minor children are required by Standing Order 2011-07 to attend a seminar for divorcing parents within 31 days of service of the original complaint upon the defendant. Failure to complete the seminar in a timely manner may subject the party to contempt or other sanctions, may delay any temporary hearings or mediation sessions, and may delay the granting of a final decree of divorce.

At the time of filing any action for temporary or permanent child support, alimony, equitable division of property, modification of child support or alimony or attorneys fees, the filing party shall file with the Clerk of Superior Court the affidavit specifying his or her financial circumstances in the form required by Uniform Superior Court Rule 24.2. and, in cases involving child support, the schedules required by O.C.G.A. §19-6-15, and shall serve the same upon the opposing party.

In protective order actions filed under O.C.G.A. §19-13-1, et. seq. and in other emergency actions, the affidavit and schedules may be filed and served on or before the date of the hearing or at such time as the court orders, and shall not be required at the time of filing of the action.

Notice of the date of any temporary hearing shall be served upon the adverse party at least 15 days before the date of the hearing, unless otherwise ordered by the court.

The opposing party shall serve the affidavit specifying his or her financial circumstances in the form set forth herein and the schedules, where applicable, and shall file with the Clerk of Court and exchange this information with the opposing party:

- (a) at least five days prior to any temporary hearing;
- (b) at least five days prior to any court ordered mediation; or
- (c) with his or her answer or thirty days after service of the complaint, whichever first occurs, if no application for a temporary award is made and the parties do not participate in mediation prior to trial.

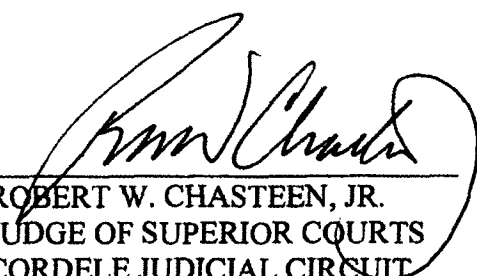

Any amendments to the affidavits or schedules shall be exchanged at least 10 days prior to hearing or trial.

Each party shall submit the proposed worksheet required by O.C.G.A. §19-6-15 at the time of hearing or trial.

No social security numbers or account numbers shall be included in any document filed with the Court.

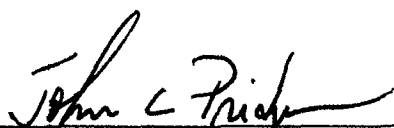

Failure of any party to furnish the above financial information, in the discretion of the court, may subject the offending party to the penalties of contempt and may result in continuance of the hearing until such time as the required financial information is furnished or such other sanctions or remedies deemed appropriate in the court's discretion.

SO ORDERED, this 3rd day of January, 2011.
